“What I am trying to say is that Jesus who incarnated God 2,000 years ago is mystically present and waiting to be discovered in EVERY person you and I encounter”

We are pleased to host a day with Dr. Anthony (Tony) Campolo, speaker, author, sociologist, pastor, social activist, and passionate follower of Jesus! Over his many years of Christian service, Tony has boldly challenged millions of people all over the world to respond to God’s boundless love by combining personal discipleship, evangelism, and social justice.

We invite you to join those of us who have been inspired by Tony’s powerful message of hope.

Please register early. We cannot accept more than 300 registrations.

The Day At A Glance

Registration
(9:00 –10:00 am)

Introductions & Welcome
(10:00-10:15am)

Session 1 –Passionate Discipleship:
Living Beyond Your Own Potential

Following Jesus requires giving up oneself and picking up one's cross. Tony Campolo contends that to be Christian is to be called to passionate living with intensive commitments and total awareness to the greatness of what God has provided for us. In this session Tony will help participants learn how discipleship leads to abundant life.

(10:15-11:45am)

Lunch – (11:45am -12:30pm)

Session 2 – Passionate Mission: Embracing The World Of Hunger

Living an abundant life in Jesus for Tony Campolo cannot be separated from serving our neighbors. Not only is the service for our neighbors a fulfillment of Jesus' commandments, but it also brings personal fulfillments and joy. Through the retelling of his own experiences, Tony Campolo will share what it means to embrace our neighbors in hunger, whether they are hungry for food, for love or for spiritual guidance.

(12:45-2:15pm)

Break – (2:15 – 2:30pm)

Session 3 – Presentation on MICAH
(2:30-3:30pm)

Wrap-Up - (3:45-4:00 pm)
