

Rev. Elizabeth Perry is an ordained elder in The United Methodist Church with almost 20 years of experience as a pastor and chaplain. She is a trained specialist in Safe Sanctuaries. Rev. Perry has shepherded two congregations through writing their own policy and training their children and youth workers, and she has been consulting with NYAC congregations on this topic since 2007. In addition to Safe Sanctuary training, Rev. Perry has led Lay Speaking classes, taught undergrad religion courses, and recently published a book: Storytelling: Beyond the Sermon.
