Robert G. Miller, New York Annual Conference secretary, submitted these names as having been duly elected to the Jurisdictional and General conferences of 2008. The New York Conference is entitled to six lay and six clergy delegates to the General Conference and twelve lay and twelve clergy delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference. The delegates elected to the General Conference are also full delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference. All lay and clergy delegates elected to the Jurisdictional Conference are also reserve delegates to the General Conference. Three lay and three clergy persons are elected to be reserve delegates for the Jurisdictional Conference. The names of those selected in each category are listed in the order in which they were elected. The delegates will meet several times prior to the conferences and will elect a chair person of the delegation. The General Conference will be held in Fort Worth, Texas, from April 23 through May 2, 2008. The 2008 Northeastern Jurisdiction Conference will meet in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, from July 13 to 18.
